THE LIBRARY MEDIA PROGRAM

How Do Students Use The Library?

The library is an essential resource to our school. First, students from kindergarten through fifth grade check books out on a weekly basis. This happens when children come to library class. Second, students have a library class that implements the Common Core State Standards. To facilitate this endeavor, champs learn how to use print and digital resources. Materials include a library of over 14,000 titles, eight PCs, a laptop cart, library assistant and full-time teacher-librarian. Thus opportunities are virtually boundless

A screenshot of an audiobook player interface for 'Elijah of Buxton' by Christopher Paul Curtis. The player is in a blue-themed window. At the top, it says 'Elijah of Buxton' and 'Chapter 1 of 26'. Below that is a progress bar showing '00:00:08' and 'Buffering: 29%' with a total duration of '00:31:32'. The main area displays the book cover, which features a portrait of a young boy and text including 'NEWBERY MEDAL WINNER', 'CHRISTOPHER PAUL CURTIS', 'Includes an Author's Note read by the author', 'ELIJAH OF BUXTON', 'READ BY MIRON WILLIS', and 'AN UNABRIDGED PRODUCTION'.
